LaRouche Releases Evidence of Innocence

On March 10, 1994, a twelve-page “Summary of Relevant Evidence On the Record Demonstrating the Innocence of Lyndon LaRouche and Co-Defendants” was issued by the LaRouche Exploratory Committee, in its preparation for a 1996 LaRouche bid for the Democratic nomination for U.S. President. LaRouche, currently out of prison on parole, has demanded full exoneration for himself and his co-defendants—in both Federal and state prosecutions—were innocent of the fraudulent charges which the government brought against them. The LaRouche presidential campaign projects printing an estimated five million copies by the end of 1994.

In his introduction, LaRouche states: “I as a presidential candidate stand before you clothed in the great honor of having paid a price for innocence which is far greater than any candidate who has stood for that high office during the recent decades.”

Russian Leaders: Economic, Moral Disaster

Members of the Washington, D.C., diplomatic and political community heard leaders of the Russian intelligentsia make an air-tight case for dropping International Monetary Fund (I.M.F.) shock therapy against Russia, at a Feb. 16 seminar sponsored by Executive Intelligence Review magazine. The experts each described from his own area of specialization how the I.M.F. policies had had a destructive effect on prospects for nation-building in the territory of the former Soviet Union, leading to a unified picture of economic, political, and moral collapse of the Russian nation—which threatens to turn it into a danger for its neighbors and all the world.
