We, the undersigned, assembled in Vienna, Virginia, on Sept. 1 and 2, 1994, having studied numerous documents concerning the case of United States vs. Lyndon H. LaRouche, Jr. et al., have come to the conclusion that there has been a gross, even conspiratorial, misuse of prosecutorial and investigative powers by officials and agents of the U.S. Government. The common purpose and concerted action of the conspirators was to secure criminal convictions of Lyndon LaRouche and his associates to destroy their political movement.

Throughout the investigation and during the trial, the prosecution, in collaboration with others and in furtherance of the conspiracy, engaged in a course of conduct intended to conceal or otherwise prevent the discovery of the innocence of LaRouche and his associates; concealed or otherwise prevented the disclosure of other exculpatory evidence and evidence relevant to the defense; falsely characterized facts or evidence in an effort to mislead the court, the jury, and the defense; solicited and presented false testimony; and obtained false convictions by wrongful and deceptive acts.

We are concerned because these legal questions not only touch on important issues regarding the Constitution of the United States of America, a codification of natural law, but present issues vital for the tradition and culture of human rights and dignity throughout the world. The disregard of the rule of law has caused and may cause a chain of further violations and lead to further miscarriages of justice. A violation of any democratic constitution anywhere in the world undermines freedom everywhere in the world.

No Fair Trial

There have been grave violations of the fundamental right to a fair trial, including (a) political motivation of the criminal charges themselves; (b) repeated instances of prosecutorial misconduct, such as the deliberate and illegal withholding of exculpatory evidence and the presentation of manufactured evidence; and (c) the lack of impartiality on the part of the trial judge in the U.S. Federal Court in the Eastern District of Vir-
